Dear Fred,

Would you ask Mrs. Deerborn to forward all mail for me except housing matters and routine bulletins (e.g., from National Federation of American Shipping, International Bank, Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, etc.) to 1248 31st St., NW, Washington, D. C.

If she is in any doubt as to whether something should be forwarded, I suggest she check with you. I am particularly anxious to have any manuscripts which may arrive from the authors of my symposium.

I am not returning to Cambridge this week end but I hope to be up a week from today and will get in touch with you then. Will you tell Jim Henson that I hope he and I can get together on his thesis at that time also.

Best regards.

Sincerely,
